BRITT KNOCKED OUT IN EIGHTEENTH ROUND

out the round. The fighters slugged each other ceaselessly. Both were bleeding and weary, but always game. In the last minute of the sixth Nelson suddenly took the lead and getting Britt in a corner beat him about the body and face until he went wavering about the ring, vainly trying to protect himself.

Britt took a terrific beating about the body, unable for the time to block Nelson's blows, but in a flash, Britt took a brace. He set himself in the middle of the ring and met Nelson with two punishing swings to the face. Hot Work in the Eighth.

Nelson halted and Britt leaped forward. He slugged and swung in one last desperate effort, but again the long ended the round, like the previous critical one at an opportune time for Nelson. In the eighth Nelson had Britt in trouble, staggering the Californian with a left and driving him to the ropes. Britt's seconds were in a frenzy, shouting all sorts of orders. Above all was the voice of "Spider" Kelly, who shouted: "Cover up, Jimmy." Jimmy obeyed and probably saved himself from going down in this round.

After the eighth, Britt appeared to tire fast. The pace was slower, and in Nelson's favor.
 Wearing on Britt.
 In the tenth and the eleventh Nelson continued to wear out Britt.

In the twelfth Britt rallied suddenly and battered Nelson for two minutes. Nelson covered his jaw and took most of the blows on the nose, ear and stomach.

Britt wore himself out and finished the round tired.

It became evident to Britt's seconds after the twelfth that their man was being beaten. They sought to bolster his wavering confidence with cheerful remarks, but Britt appeared to realize that he was beaten. In the thirteenth, Britt took a beating with gameness.

The Fourteenth Exciting.

The fourteenth round was the most exciting one of the fight. Nelson, knowing Britt was tiring fast, had before him the determination to end the battle. In five seconds he had Britt staggering about, his guard lowered and all but out.

Time and again Nelson planted left hand blows on Britt's face, driving him against the ropes. Over eagerness on Nelson's part prolonged the fight beyond this round. Seeing his brother beaten down Willie Britt shouted:

"Swing Jimmy! Swing!"

Setting himself to meet Nelson, Britt swung his right hand with all the strength in his body. The blow landed and Nelson was not only stopped, but seemed to give ground. Britt pressed the advantage. With his feet set apart to steady himself once more he met Nelson with full swings, finally forcing the Dane to clinch.

The Boxers Cheered.

The gong sounded while they were standing head to head, slugging at each other with both hands. Ten thousand men rose and cheered the boxers.

The desperate struggle in the fourteenth round compelled both men to slow up in the next two rounds and no decisive work was done by either, though Nelson showed more strength whenever they came to a clinch. The seventeenth was not slow by a good margin. The eighteenth proved the end of Britt. A detailed account of the round, which lasted about two minutes, shows little difference from the preceding rounds.

Britt Tired, But Game.

Britt was tired, but game, and willing. Nelson forced him about the ring and gave many body blows all ways boring in.

He cornered Britt and drove him against the ropes. Britt squirmed out and sent in a terrific left to the stomach that appeared to hurt Nelson. Nelson covered his body and Britt swung for his face.

Quick as a flash Nelson sent in a short, sharp left hand blow to Britt's stomach. He gave away and stepped back, crouching to deceive Nelson and give himself time to recover.

Nelson saw the damage his blow had inflicted, however, and pressed on. He forced Britt into his own corner, and there, in a rally that lasted only a few moments, the end came.

Britt went down suddenly. Nelson says it was from a blow on the jaw.

Probably From Exhaustion.

Britt had no clear idea after the fight what put him out, but in the opinion of those who were close by it was the blow in the stomach that took all his remaining strength and he fell from exhaustion.

When Britt fell in his own corner, flat on his face there was a momentary hush and the voice of the official timer was heard distinctly counting off the seconds. Britt turned on his back and lay gasping, his bloody tongue protruding from his mouth. Five seconds had scarcely been counted when there was a roar from the crowd which saw that the little San Francisco boy could not rise.

The Crowd Was Orderly.

"Nine! Ten!" shouted the timer. Grancy pointed to Nelson and the roar from the crowd increased.

Contrary to expectations, the crowd of 9,000 men and a score of women at the ringside was orderly. The stubborn action of Nelson's manager, which left the public in doubt up to the last minute, probably is responsible for the crowd's falling below expectations, and the total receipts were about $60,000 instead of $70,000.

Referee Grancy caused much surprise after he had been chosen to act by declaring all bets off. Subsequently about 2:35 o'clock he told newspaper men that bets made after his acceptance as referee would stand.

EDUCATIONAL.

MISS KATE FENNER wishes to announce to the Public that her MUSIC SCHOOL Opens Sept. 4, at 122 Thirty-first St. COURSE OF STUDY—PIANO, VIOLIN, VOICE CULTURE AND SINGING.

Burrows' Musical Kindergarten taught in classes to children under twelve years of age at reduced rates. Hoping to prepare her pupils for successful teaching.

GRADED TEACHERS' CERTIFICATES will be given upon examination.

Theory taught in a class, one hour per week, FREE to all pupils. This will be especially advantageous to singing pupils. The opportunity of listening to good music plays such an important part in forming the ideal musician that Miss Fenner hopes, with the co-operation of the people, to have a series of public concerts by the leading artists of the day, to which her pupils will have FREE admission. She has engaged the services of Miss Mabel Lininger, soprano, for instructor in voice culture and singing. Miss Lininger has been highly recommended for the position by Mr. Louis Arthur Russell, principal and director of the vocal and piano department of the Metropolitan School of Music, New York City.

"Mr. Russell is known as one of New York's most noted voice specialists."—The Musical Courier.

For further information and terms, please call or address

MISS KATE FENNER, 122 Thirty-first Street.
